

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL
THEY SAY Bertha Von Lipon is worth $32,000,000 and is the daughter of the Doge of Venice. However, she couldn't pay her apartment rent in California and when evicted she kicked the door down.

WOODWARD - UNDERWOOD
COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF of the British naval forces, Admiral Sir William Pakenham, will anchor his flagship in the Potomac River Saturday and come ashore to visit Washington for a few days.

P. AND A.
NURSING THE IVORIES, Jake Schaefer retained his 182 pound crown, coveted by Welker Cochran, in their recent tournament, by beating the challenger 1,000-to-919.

POSTER PHOTO
"QUEEN OF VIRGINIA" is the title now enjoyed by Mrs. Hattie A. Semones, of Roanoke, who is presiding with grace and dignity at the festivity and gaiety incident to the Historical Pageant which began in Richmond Monday and will continue eight days.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL
LEFT ALL ALONE by her husband for two years, it finally dawned on Mrs. Felicia Katherine Aldrich that perhaps he did not care for her as much as he used to, so she has gotten herself a late model divorce in San Francisco on the ground of desertion.

THE MAY DAY PROCESSION at Seat Pleasant, D. C., was participated in by 200 or more youthful parishioners of St. Margaret's Catholic Church. All the little girls wore white dresses and the boys wore cassocks and surplices. They marched around the neighborhood singing hymns and the exercises were brought to a close with benediction in the church.

CANOEING TIME IS HERE and Miss Henrietta Moore, an expert with the paddle, was one of the first to take a spin on the placid Potomac. She is shown pushing off from Cumberland's Boathouse in Georgetown.

GETTING INTO TRIM for the international polo tournament to be staged by Lord Rocksvage, American millionaire clubmen are having some lively scrimmages nowadays. The action shot herewith presented shows Morgan Belmont and W. R. Grace, members of the exclusive Meadowbrook Club, in action.

KEYSTONE
NONE BUT BEAUTIES participated in the Simmons College May Festival in Boston. Here we have them in a court scene, in which Miss Agnes Broward impersonated the king and Miss Eleanor O'Connor the queen.

P. AND A.
BOUNDING ALONG ON THE BILLOWY MAIN, the Transport Henderson is carrying Secretary of the Navy Denby and Mrs. Denby, and the Annapolis class of 1881 on a 25,000-mile cruise to the Orient and back, the Senate of the United States to the contrary, notwithstanding. The class will enjoy its reunion in Tokyo as the guests of the Japanese government.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL
THIS MAIL ORDER BRIDE, Mrs. Milda Mialovich, traveled all the way from Czechoslovakia to marry the man who fell in love with her photograph. She has since divorced him.

WOODWARD - UNDERWOOD
ONCE A RIVAL of the famous "Lanchorne Sisters" as a belle in Virginia society, Mrs. James Lee Shelton is said to have met with financial reverses and is teaching auction bridge for pay now.

WOODWARD - UNDERWOOD
CALIFORNIA'S PERFECT BABY calls her mother. A couple of friends called her to a table in a Los Angeles hotel dining room; she took "one harmless drink," and the next thing Mrs. Merle Wilhoit knew, her hosts were trying to frisk her of several thousand dollars' worth of jewelry she had secreted in her tresses.

FRYING PANCAKES on a camp fire in the Tourist Camp in Potomac Park, little Miss Jane Hodges, who "tin lizzied" from Olean, N. Y., to Washington with her fond parents, provided them with a delightful breakfast.

KEYSTONE
HE WANTS TO DIS- LODGE Senator Lodge from his seat in the Senate. In the forthcoming Senatorial election in Massachusetts Samuel W. McCall probably will oppose him.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL
COL. H. NELSON, who will represent the American Legion at the convention of the British Legion which begins June 4.

STANDING ROOM ONLY is available at the National Theater now because the famous playhouse has been dismantled and will be torn down. August Pahl is shown loading the last chair, with William Fowler looking on.

WASHINGTON AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS! The Times is desirous of publishing some of your pictures on this page. Send in news or action shots and you will be paid for them, if used. For each photograph used The Times will pay $3. For each photograph retained for future use $2 will be paid. The photographs must be exclusive to The Times. They must be clear prints and illustrate a news happening or recent event in the National Capital. The Highway Bridge going across the Potomac is not news, but if it stop crossing it—that's different. When you send in pictures be sure to write your name and address, as well as a description of the news event, on the back of it, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope if you want the pictures returned to you.